-Mrs. Mulbolland left at 3 o'clock yesterday morning for Colorado. John has not been seen since his sudden disappearance with $1200 and the tickets for Denver, to which place his wife has gone with all their stock in trade. The police are inclined to look upon the whole affair as a deep laid shame. The pair were seen in sernest and scheme. The pair were seen in earnest and long conversation shortly before his sudden and mysterious disappearance was reported by Mrs. Mulholland.

—The workmen employed in excavating for buildings on Capt, Lee's Main street property made a queer find a day or two ago at the bottom of what appeared to be an old cistern. It was nothing more or less than an old hearse, which was like the pitcher of old that went to the well so many times before it was broken. But the funereal appearance of the fragments of the dead-wagon was enough to fill the superstitious laborers with awe and start a rumor that a whole graveyard had been unearthed. -Robert Perkins, Willie Perkins, Charles Lewis and Henry Webb, all colored youths ranging in ages from eight to fifteen years, were before the Police Court yesterday morn-
